Milky Way Design:

1. Spherical Motion
2. Rotation around its axis and revolution
3. Glass dome (solar panels, generators of electricity).

Design is based on spherical motion of Earth around its axis as well as revolution around the sun. In addition, motion is achieved through electrical power from the solar energy. Motion generate electrical power. Entire structure is build from eco friendly materials, solar panels which generate electricity. The Paramount Law of Transformation "Milky Way" design reflects motion of the Universe, profoundly common, profoundly efficient, profoundly elegant. Design provide aesthetic view nearly infinite variety of angels in terms of vision vs light, vs sequence. "Milky Way" design is one of the kind, and can be adopted in variety of buildings including skyscrapers. Just imagine the view, every morning, noon, evening and night.
